FARMER'S WIVES

Are generally good judges of all kinds of Groceries. They want a good article and want to get it as cheaply as possible—in other words, they want to maket heir butter and egg money go as far as possible in buying the family groceries.

are all important items that enter into every day use in almost every home in the country. There is a big difference in the quality of all of these articles—for instance, some crackers are stale and have an old, musty taste, some oatmeal is full of husks and has a disagreeable flavor, and in teas and coffees you can get a much better one for 25c at some places than you can at others. Now to the point I wish to make. I claim that in all these items I sell the very best than can be had, and by buying from me you are always certain of getting something that is nice and will please you.
